

This stuti glorifies Lord Hanuman, celebrating his virtues, strength, and devotion. It describes his power, grace, and blessings upon his devotees. Let us understand the meaning of each verse:

|| Hanuman Stuti ||

Verse 1:

Jai Bajrangi Jai Hanumana,
Rudra Roop Jai Jai Balwana,
Pavansut Jai Ram Dulare,
Sankat Mochan Siya Matu Ke Pyare.

Meaning: Victory to Bajrangbali! Victory to Lord Hanuman, the incarnation of Rudra and the epitome of strength!
Hail to Pavansut, the beloved devotee of Lord Ram!
O Sankatmochan, the dear devotee of Mother Sita, we bow to you.

Verse 2:

Jai Vajrakaya Jai Ram Keru Dasa,
Hriday Kartu Siyaram Nivasa,
Na Janahu Nath Tohi Kas Goharai,
Ram Bhakt Tohi Ram Duhai.

Meaning: Hail to the one with a body as hard as a diamond, the servant of Lord Ram!
Siyaram resides in your heart.
O Lord, how can I call out to you, for you are the one who hears the cries of Ram's devotees?
I invoke you with the name of Lord Ram.

Verse 3:

Vinati Sunahu Laj Rakhu Hamari,
Kaj Kaun Jo Tum Par Bhari,
Ashtasiddhi Navanidhi Keru Bhupa,
Bakhanahu Kas Vishal Ati Roopa.

Meaning: Listen to my plea and protect my honor.
There is no task in this world that is beyond your power.
You are the master of the eight siddhis (divine powers) and nine nidhis (treasures).
How can I describe your immense and magnificent form?

Verse 4:

Dharma Rakshak Jai Bhakt Hitkari,
Sun Lije Ab Araj Hamari,
Bhoot Pret Harahu Nath Badha,
Santaphi Ab Laghahu Sadha.

Meaning: Hail to the protector of dharma and the benefactor of devotees!
Hear my prayer.
Remove ghosts, spirits, and all obstacles from my path.
Free me from suffering and pain.

Verse 5:

Maan Mor Ab Haath Tumhare,
Karahu Kripa Anjani Ke Pyare,
Bandatu Saurabh Das Sunahu Pukari,
Mangal Karahu He Mangalkari.

Meaning: My honor and dignity are now in your hands.
O beloved son of Anjani, show your mercy upon me.
This servant, Saurabh, calls out to you.
O Mangalkari Hanuman, bring auspiciousness to my life.
