Chaitra Navratri 2025 – Navratri 8th Day | नवरात्रि का आठवां दिन - माँ महागौरी | PDF

On the eighth day of Navratri, worship is offered to Maa Mahagauri, the eighth form of Goddess Durga. Maa Mahagauri represents beauty, peace, and compassion. Her appearance is exceptionally beautiful and radiant, and her worship brings purity, tranquility, and happiness into life. By worshipping Mahagauri, devotees are said to be freed from all troubles and sins, gaining happiness, prosperity, and success.

Maa Mahagauri's Appearance

Color: Maa Mahagauri has a complexion as pure and bright as milk, which is why she is referred to as “Mahagauri.”

Attire: She wears white clothing, earning her the name “Shvetambharadhara.”

Vehicle: Her vehicle is a bull, which symbolizes strength, leading to her being known as “Vrisharoodha.”

Weapons: Maa Mahagauri has four hands, in which she holds a trident, damru (drum), and is depicted in the abhaya (fearlessness) and varada (blessing) mudras.

The Legend of Maa Mahagauri

According to mythology, Parvati performed intense penance to obtain Lord Shiva as her husband. During her rigorous penance, her body became dark due to hardships. Pleased with her devotion, Lord Shiva accepted her and bathed her in the waters of the Ganges, restoring her radiant complexion. Thus, she came to be known as “Mahagauri.”
